

Apprenticeship Information Pack - FOR EMPLOYERS

Who are we?

At the Hair Academy we have an enthusiastic and friendly group of Tutors that are qualified to the highest levels and are constantly improving their skills to meet the Learners training needs effectively. We teach our Learners in small groups, to ensure that they have the attention and support that they need.

Your learner will work in a well-equipped salon which is supported by L'Oréal. Our Tutors teach above the National Standards to enable your Learner to achieve the necessary skills to work on the salon floor as a Stylist. Using our rigorous assessment process, we aim to support them in becoming the best they can be within our industry. They will gain confidence in working with clients in a professional and friendly environment.

The Hair Academy is open all year except the last 3 weeks in December and all bank holidays. Further information can be found on our website www.thehairacademy.co.uk

This Information Pack will give you the information that you need for employing a future learner onto our Apprenticeship programmes.

Apprentice Qualities required to succeed Triple A: Aspiration Attitude Achievement

The Definition of an Apprenticeship

An Apprenticeship is a job that requires substantial and sustained training leading to the achievement of the apprenticeship standard and the development of transferable skills.

This definition is underpinned by four principles of future Apprenticeships.

- An Apprenticeship is a job, in a skilled occupation.
- An Apprenticeship requires substantial and sustained training lasting a minimum of 12 months, normally 2-2.5 years, including 20% off-the-job training.
- An Apprenticeship leads to full competency in an acceptance demonstrated by the achievement of an Apprenticeship standard that is defined by Employers and Apprentices.
- An Apprenticeship develops transferable skills, including English and Maths (where needed) customer service skills, communication, personal development and confidence, as well as time keeping, team work and the correct attitudes and behaviours in the work place.

Which Hairdressing Apprenticeships are available at The Hair Academy?

Here at The Hair Academy, we offer a fun and varied curriculum designed for people aged 16 – 24. What is The Hair Academy / Employer/ Learner's Agreement?

Our Learner's Agreement is a contract between The Hair Academy, the Employer and the Learner. Everyone involved will sign to agree their roles and responsibilities in regard to the apprenticeship. Employer will be issued with a Definition of a Quality Apprenticeship Agreement. This document identifies the employer's responsibilities to the learner during their time of employment on their Apprenticeship.

You are responsible for covering and supporting with the following,

Covering Safeguarding, Equal Opportunity Provisions, Work hours and Annual Leave, Training Nights, Salon Code of Conduct, Working Time Regulations / Minimum Wage, Sickness Absence and Sick Pay, Employee Rights – Contract of Employment, Organisations within Hairdressing, Health and Safety, Grievance Procedure, Disciplinary Procedure and Advice, Issue of Public Concern, Career Pathways and Progression Routes and Advice and Maternity Rights & Pay. 20% off the job training in salon (6 hours per week)

What do I have to pay an Apprentice?

Apprentices are exempt from the minimal wage for the first year of training. An apprentice currently must be paid £6.40 per hour (from April 24) however, this is usually revised every April. (Please visit www.gov.uk for more information & guidance) Many Employers choose to pay more than the hourly rate in recognition of the learner's hard work and commitment to the company. Alternatively, you can visit www.gov.uk online and that will have the latest National minimum wage information and guidance on Employing an Apprentice.

Is there any help to employ an apprentice?

The Government offer an incentive payment for learners on the new hairdressing Standard of £1000, this is paid over two payments at start up (after 3 months and after 12 months) Please contact us for up-to-date information on this.

What does the learner need to bring when they start their Apprenticeship?

- ✓ Scissors
- ✓ Clips
- ✓ Combs
- ✓ Pencils
- ✓ Pens
- ✓ Notepad
- ✓ Plastic Wallets

All of the equipment is required from all Apprentices before starting.

The Hair Academy will supply a complimentary lanyard that must be worn at all times whilst at The Hair Academy. If this gets lost, a replacement cost will be included.

Replacement £2.00

How will I know how my learner is progressing?

The Hair Academy will send you a formal 3 monthly up to date training plan stating what the learner has been working on in training sessions and what they have achieved. These are colour coded red-not started, amber-in progress and green-completed and also give guidance and targets for the learner/tutor to follow. Your learner's progress is at the heart of all our decisions therefore it is vital that we maintain effective communication. All learners have an e-portfolio system so you will be able to access your learners on line portfolio 24/7 to see progress to date.

Can I attend the academy to see how my learner is doing?

You can visit us at any time to observe your learner in training, no appointment necessary. We are more than happy to hold meetings in person throughout the year to provide you with updates on changes that may affect Apprenticeships, (this information will also be sent via email and newsletters) as well and provide you with an opportunity to meet with our tutors and discuss your learner progress; we welcome your views and invite your opinions on how we may improve our service offer to further develop our training programmes. “The Hair Academy team teach above the standards and asses to the standards “

Can I assess my learner in the work place?

Yes, we encourage employers and in-house assessors to participate in the learning process. You may record your learner’s progress in the formative logbook and if you hold an Assessor Award you may also conduct summative assessment which may be recorded in your learners E portfolio. Assessors that conduct summative assessment must comply with the City and Guilds quality assurance procedures and attend at least two annual standardisation meetings and provide evidence of the required hours of continuous personal development (CPD) per year. Tutors are also subject to quality assurance visit from internal and external verifiers.

Are there any costs that I have to pay?

A Level 2 apprenticeship age16-18 has no employer costs it is 100% Government funded.

Employers have to open an apprenticeship service account to secure funding for the apprentice and select the provider they wish to place their apprentice with.

Please note that any learners over the age of 19 will attract a 5% employer contribution to training, this covers both the Level 2 and Level 3 qualifications
